referred to as, the “Parties” or individually as, “Party”), hereby enter into this Stipulated Protective Order (“Stipulated Protective Order”).

I. PURPOSE OF THIS PROTECTIVE ORDER

The purpose of this Stipulated Protective Order is to provide a means for limiting access to and use and disclosure of Confidential Documents or Information produced in this action. Any unauthorized disclosure of Confidential Documents or Information in violation of this Order may be subject to discipline by the contempt powers of this United States District Court for the District of Nevada.

II. DESIGNATION OF “CONFIDENTIAL DOCUMENTS OR INFORMATION”

The Parties may designate such documents or information as “Confidential” in accordance with the following procedures:

A. “Confidential” Documents or Information.

Either Party may designate any documents, records, reports, video tapes, tangible items, or information as “Confidential.” Upon a designation of “Confidential,” the Parties shall treat any designated document, record, report, video tape, tangible item, or information as confidential and shall only use such document, record, report, video tape, tangible item, or information solely for the prosecution or defense of this matter.

B. Time of Designation

Unless otherwise agreed between counsel for the Parties, the designation of Confidential Documents or Information shall be made at the time of the production of documents, records, reports, video tapes, tangible items, or information.

1           C.     Manner of Designation

2           The designation of Confidential Documents or Information shall be made in the 3 following manner:

4           1.     For documents, by placing the notation “Confidential” on each page of such 5 document;

7           2.     For tangible items, including any video tapes or documents or information 8 produced on magnetic disks or other computer related media, by placing the notation 9 “Confidential” on the object and, if applicable, on the container thereof or if such are not 10 practicable, as otherwise agreed by the Parties. In the event either Party generates any 11 “hard copy” or printout from any “Confidential Material,” that Party must immediately 12 stamp each page “Confidential”, and the hard copy or printout shall be treated as 13 “Confidential Information pursuant to this Stipulated Protective Order.” 14

15           D.     Retroactive Designation

16
17           1.     Inadvertent production of any Confidential Documents or Information 18 without a designation of confidentiality will not be deemed to waive a later claim as to 19 confidentiality or privilege, or prevent the Party claiming confidentiality from re-20 designating such documents or information as “Confidential” promptly after discovery of 21 the inadvertent production.

22           2.     Within a reasonable time after production, either Party may retroactively 23 designate (or withdraw a designation) of Confidential Documents or Information, regarding 24 any material that it has produced, provided however, that such retroactive designation (or 25 withdrawal) shall be in accordance with the terms of this Order. Such retroactive

1 designation (or withdrawal) shall be accomplished by notifying counsel for the non-2 designating Party in writing of such retroactive designation (or withdrawal). Upon receipt 3 of any such written re-designation, counsel (i) shall not make any further disclosure or 4 communication of such retroactively designated material except as provided for in this 5 Order; (ii) shall take reasonable steps to notify all persons known to have possession of any 6 retroactively designated material of the effect of such re-designation under this Order; and 7 (iii) shall take reasonable steps to procure all copies of such retroactively designated 8 material from any persons known to have possession of any such retroactively designated 9 material who are not entitled to receipt under this Order.

11
 12 E. Resolution of Disputes Regarding Designation

13 If either Party, at any time, wishes to have the “Confidential” designation of any 14 particular Confidential Documents or Information removed or changed, that Party shall 15 first request in writing that the Party having made the designation at issue change its 16 designation. Thereafter, the Parties shall make good faith efforts to resolve the dispute. If 17 the designating Party refuses to agree to remove or change the designation, then the Party 18 that requests that the designation be so removed may make a motion before this Court for 19 an order removing or changing the designation; provided, however, that the designating 20 Party shall have the burden of proving that such particular Confidential Document or 21 Information are properly designated as “Confidential” pursuant to paragraph III below. At 22 all times during the process of challenging a designation, the Parties shall treat the 23 Confidential Documents or Information as originally designated until a change is agreed to 24 or the motion is decided by the Court and written notice of such decision is served on the 25 Parties.

1 Any motion filed with respect to this Stipulated Protective Order or documents
2 labeled "Confidential" must comply with the local rules of the United States District Court
3 for the District of Nevada.

4 F. Designation of Third Party Documents.

5 Documents and/or information produced by a third party in response to a subpoena 6 or during deposition in the course of this litigation may involve receipt of information, 7 documents, things or testimony which include, contain or comprise protected information 8 that may or may not be appropriate for "Confidential" designation under this Order. Unless 9 otherwise agreed in writing between counsel for the parties, documents and information so 10 produced by a third party shall be treated as follows: First of all, all such documents and 11 information shall automatically be deemed to be and shall be treated as "Confidential" for 12 twenty (20) business days following their actual receipt by both counsel for Plaintiff and 13 counsel for Defendants in this action, in order to enable each such counsel to determine 14 whether in their view any protected information is embodied therein. If no designation of 15 the information as "Confidential" by the Designating Party is received by the non-16 Designating Party within twenty (20) business days after production, then the information 17 will not be protected by this Protective Order except pursuant to subsequent designation by 18 a party hereto or pursuant to a subsequent agreement of the parties or Court order; if 19 however a written designation of "Confidential" is made by a Designating Party and is 20 received by the non-Designating Party within twenty (20) business days after production of 21 documents or information by the non-party, then the information will be subject to this 22 Protective Order and will be deemed to be "Confidential" (as requested by the Designating 23 Party); provided, however, that the designation may be challenged as any such designation.

III. PERSONS TO WHOM CONFIDENTIAL DOCUMENTS OR INFORMATION MAY BE DISCLOSED

1           B. Additional Authorized Disclosure of Documents or Information
2                                   Designated as "Confidential"

3           Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in paragraph III(A) above, particular 4 Confidential Documents or Information that have been designated as "Confidential" may 5 be disclosed and copies may be provided:

6           1.       To Persons who are explicitly named on the document as the authors or 7 addressees or to persons who may be shown to be an author or recipient of any particular 8 document;

9           2.       To any other persons with the prior written consent of the designating Party;

10          3.       To any other persons with the prior authorization of this Court or any other 11 tribunal of competent jurisdiction having involvement in this matter; and 12

13          4.       If a document designated as "Confidential" refers to the conduct or affairs of 14 a potential witness, the Party's counsel of record may and shall discuss such conduct or 15 affairs with such person without revealing the existence of the document, or its authors or 16 source.
17

18           C. Disclosure to Experts or Consultants

19           Prior to disclosing or providing copies of any Confidential Documents or 20 Information to any expert or consultant pursuant to paragraphs III(A) or III(B), above, the 21 Parties shall first obtain the agreement of the expert, consultant or anyone else to whom 22 such disclosure will be made to be bound by the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order 23 as set forth in the attached "Acknowledgment and Agreement To Be Bound." Specifically, 24 the expert or consultant shall acknowledge that, during the course of his or her retention, 25 the expert or consultant may have access to, and become acquainted with Confidential

Documents or Information, which are regularly used in the operation of the businesses of the designating Party and in which the designating Party has an expectation of confidentiality. The expert or consultant shall agree not to disclose such Confidential Documents or Information, directly or indirectly, to any person or entity not subject to this Stipulated Protective Order or use them in any way outside the specific scope of his/her retention as an expert witness in this action, or at any time thereafter.

D. Return of Confidential Documents or Information by Experts and Consultants

Confidential Documents or Information disclosed to any expert or consultant may be retained by such expert or consultant provided that such expert or consultant subsequently destroys any and all copies of such Confidential Documents or Information upon the termination of their engagement.

IV. USE OF CONFIDENTIAL DOCUMENTS OR INFORMATION

A. Use of Confidential Documents or Information Generally

Confidential Documents or Information shall only be used by the Parties, their respective agents, and any other persons to whom such Confidential Documents or Information may be disclosed pursuant to this Stipulated Protective Order: (1) in this action; (2) as otherwise compelled by lawful process (provided the designating Party is given a reasonable notice to object); or (3) as otherwise required by law. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Stipulated Protective Order shall prevent or limit the designating Party from disclosing Confidential Documents or Information they so designate.

1. Confidential Documents or Information may be used by counsel for the non-designating Party in good faith in connection with investigating this action, provided that the Confidential Documents or Information are protected pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Stipulated Protective Order.

2. The terms of this Stipulated Protective Order do not apply to evidence presented at or for court proceedings and/or trial in this matter unless so designated by the Court. Any protective measures relating to Confidential Documents or Information should be taken up with the judicial officer conducting the particular proceeding at the appropriate time.

3. If either Party seeks to file pleadings or other documents with this Court that contains the other Party's Confidential Documents or Information, it may do so only if: (a) the pleading and other documents that contains the other Party's Confidential Documents or Information are filed under seal in the manner prescribed by the Court; and (b) the filing Party informs the designating Party of such filing prior to the filing of such documents with the Court.

Upon written request after the final conclusion of this action, the Parties shall:

A. Return to the other Party any and all Confidential Documents or Information so designated by that Party and all copies thereof in its possession, custody and control or otherwise destroy such documents;

1 B. Ensure that all Confidential Documents or Information in the possession, 2 custody or control of any permitted parties or third parties are returned to the designating 3 Party or are otherwise destroyed; and

4 C. Destroy all notes, memoranda or other documents that contain excerpts from 5 any of the Confidential Documents or Information. Notwithstanding the foregoing, 6 attorney work product, attorney-client communications, and information derived from 7 Confidential Documents or Information may be retained by the non-designating Party and 8 its counsel.

10 VI. PUBLIC DOCUMENTS

11
12 None of the restrictions set forth in this Stipulated Protective Order shall apply to 13 any documents or other information that become public knowledge by means not in 14 violation of the provisions of this Stipulated Protective Order.

15 VII. NO PROBATIVE VALUE

16 This Stipulated Protective Order shall not aggregate or diminish any contractual, 17 statutory or other legal obligation or right of any party or person with respect to any 18 Confidential Documents or Information. The fact that information is designated 19 “Confidential” under the Stipulated Protective Order shall not be deemed to be 20 determinative of what a trier of fact may determine to be confidential or proprietary. This 21 Stipulated Protective Order shall be without prejudice to the right of any party to bring 22 information before this Court, regardless of (a) whether any particular material is or is not 23 Confidential, or (b) whether any particular information or material is or is not entitled to a 24 greater or lesser degree of protection under the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order, 25 provided that in doing so, the party complies with the procedures set forth herein. The fact

1 that any information is disclosed, used, or produced in any proceeding in this action shall 2 not be offered in any other action or proceeding before this or any other Court, agency or 3 tribunal as evidence of or concerning whether or not such information is admissible, 4 confidential or proprietary.

6 VIII. NO IMPLIED WAIVER OF ADMISSION

7 No party shall be obligated to challenge the proprietary nature of any designation of 8 “Confidential” information, and the failure to do so shall not constitute a waiver or 9 otherwise preclude a subsequent challenge to the designation.
10

11 IX. MODIFICATION OF THIS STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

12 The Parties hereto may modify the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order by 13 further stipulation. However, no modification by the parties shall have the force or effect 14 of a court order unless the Court approves the modification. Alternatively, any party hereto 15 may seek an order of this Court to modify the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order.
16 Any motion seeking such modification must be served upon all counsel of record and filed
